KISCO's Valencia Terrace Previews With Summer Celebration

A warm summer breeze last Saturday in Corona gave way to a hot “Summer Celebration and Sneak Peek” of the Inland Empire’s newest senior living community, Valencia Terrace.

More than 400 guests attended the pre-opening event and toured the facility, located at 2300 S. Main Street, for the first time. Valencia Terrace is the first independent and assisted living community to be built in Corona in more than 20 years. First move-ins are scheduled for early August.

Those that took tours of the newest Kisco Senior Living community, were able to experience, first hand, the company’s “The Art of Living WellSM” philosophy.

Upon entering the campus, valet attendants escorted guests to the red carpet which led them to the wonderful smells of the open pit BBQ and lavish buffet set up under the entrance portico.

As guests enjoyed the food, USO themed entertainment had people dancing on two dance floors. The big band of Doc Anello provided the swinging music. The Fabulous Harmonettes sang the songs of the Andrew Sisters, and the crowd cheered when WWII style swing dancers did back flips off the stage. Don Chatfield kept folks entertained in the lobby as he played favorite tunes on Valencia Terrace’s new baby grand piano. Authentic WWII Army jeeps were also on display for guests to enjoy and reminisce.
